It would make the farmers of those states where the rainfall was very heavy during November and where the country roads were rendered well nigh impassable for weeks gasp if they could see figured out in dollars and cents the actual loss they sustained in the single item of increased expense in hauling their produce to market. In many localities it was impossible to stir at all, while in others but a small jag could be moved, and four horses were often required to do this. It seems strange, with agricultural products representing so large a value, that rural dwellers take so slight an interest in a question that in the aggregate means a loss of millions of dollars to them annually.

FLYNN HELD FOR COURT

Squire Hill this morning gave a hearing to Cornelius Flynn, of Hagers-town, charged with stealing two rubber mats valued at $75.00 from the Reading railroad cars in Gettysburg last June. The prisoner was held for Court.

J. Ed. Swift and George Bumbaugh testified to the rubber having been stolen. Charles H. Wilson told of his having been around town about June 7, the date of the alleged burglary and Officer O'Riley also gave testimony along this line saying that he saw the prisoner about the Reading cars at four o'clock on the morning of the burglary.

Chief Gordon told of his arrest and subsequent breaking out of the lock-up by getting out a bar in the door and springing the lock. Mr. Gordon also told of finding a piece of rubber on the road to the lock-up, evidently having been dropped by Flynn on the way. The prisoner was identified by Officer Gordon as the man arrested, though his appearance was somewhat different when the arrest was made.

Wesley Oyley told of a man by the name of Flynn calling at his office to dispose of rubber like that stolen but which he did not identify the prisoner as the man.

District Attorney Neely represented the Commonwealth and Flynn was sent to jail to await trial. The man claims that they have the wrong party but produced no evidence to that effect.

DISPUTED COINS ARE GENUINE

Nickels, Thought to be Counterfeit and Refused at Many Gettysburg Business Places, Decided by Mint Official to be Genuine.

The much disputed nickels, which Gettysburg people thought were counterfeit and which many business places refused to receive on this account, are genuine, as will be seen by the following letter received by I. L. Taylor, teller of the Gettysburg National Bank, from the United States Mint at Philadelphia.

Mr. I. L. Taylor,
Gettysburg, Pa.

Dear Sir:—
I saw the coiner this morning and handed him the nickel you sent me and he said it was genuine and no counterfeit. He gave me another in its place which you will find here-with enclosed.

Very respectfully,
Geo. L. H. Grammer.

Mr. Grammer, who has been connected with the mint for some time, is well known in Gettysburg and the county, having formerly occupied one of the offices in the Court House.

Mr. Taylor contended from the start of the talk about the nickels that they were genuine and, as receiving teller of the Gettysburg National, accepted all that were brought to him. Several hundred came into his possession in this way, an unusual number of the coins being floated in on the town at one time.

The only thing that made the coins look spurious was that the edges were rough. The decision of the mint official settles the question and allows all to accept the nickels without fear of being "done."

NARROW ESCAPES IN THE COUNTY

High Waters and Floating Ice Give Trouble to People who Attempt to Cross Streams. Falls into Icy Creek.

Reports are coming in of narrow escapes made by various county persons during the high waters of Friday, conditions then being made all the more dangerous by the large amount of ice on the streams.

Friday when Wm. Gulden started for Table Rock school to take his children home he found the water so high between the house of Martin Boyer and the station that he did not attempt to go through with his stick wagon. Instead, he got a high spring wagon from Mr. Boyer to go through the deep water and ice. Even in this the water came into the wagon, the wheels being completely submerged. Mr. Gulden did not attempt to make the return trip the same way but, after getting the children, drove back by way of Biglerville.

The waters of the Big Conewago backed to such an extent near Roth's Mill on Friday that the highway for a distance of several hundred feet was blocked by a veritable ice gorge four feet deep. Work was started on Saturday to open the road, it being necessary to literally chop a way through. The road was open for travel on Monday.

Roy Walker, of Parlow, had a narrow escape from drowning on Friday evening when he and Jesse Clapsaddle attempted to cross Rock Creek on horse back. The waters were high and there was much floating ice. Mr. Walker's horse was knocked down by a cake of ice and the young man struggled for quite a while, sinking several times before he got to solid ground. Mr. Clapsaddle was not hurt and Mr. Walker's horse got out all right.

The three children of R. Anders, Jesse and Ross Anders and their sister, who attend school at the two bridges where "Possum and Big Conewago" Creeks meet had quite an experience Friday night after school. They found the water so high between the two bridges that it was impossible to wade through. George Bowers offered the use of his horse and the two boys got through safely to the second bridge. Jesse going home and Ross returning to the first bridge for Mr. Bowers who was to take him over and then get the sister by this time it was thought unsafe to make another trip and the two children were cared for by neighbors.

The Anders family had an anxious time until they learned what had become of the two children who failed to return home for they feared the boy and girl had been drowned in the attempt to cross by calling across the raging stream to John Spangler they found out their whereabouts.

TO GIVE MINSTREL SHOW

At the regular weekly business meeting of the Gettysburg Young Men's Christian Association held on Monday evening it was decided that a minstrel show be given in the very near future to raise funds for the organization. A committee of seven was appointed to have the matter in charge, Calvin Hartman being chosen later as its chairman.

It is the plan of the association to give a first class minstrel show with plenty of local color in it and with all the features which will make an attractive entertainment for Gettysburg people. A number of very liberal gifts have been received for the work of the association but more funds will be needed as the scope of the work is extended.

It was also decided at the meeting to have "open house" on Saturday afternoon from two to five o'clock when all visitors will be welcome. Several weeks ago a "ladies' day" was held and Saturday's affair will be similar to this.

At Monday's meeting the question of the advisability of a ladies' auxiliary was talked over, the matter being placed in the hands of a committee for investigation.

The association is in need of an egg stove and would greatly appreciate the gift of this necessary article.

WILL STORE 100,000 DOZEN EGGS

I J. Gladfelter, of York, one of the foremost shippers in York County, or even in the state, has made arrangements for the storage of at least one hundred thousand dozen eggs the coming spring and summer. Mr. Gladfelter's opinion is that the eggs will be very plentiful as soon as the weather gets warmer.

The Ladies Aid Society of the U. B. Church will hold a chicken and waffle supper in the parsonage, 28 High street on Friday evening January 28, from 5 to 9 p. m. Ice cream and other extras. Price for supper 25 cts. A general invitation is extended.

MORE TALK OF TROLLEY LINE

More trolley talk.

Within the next few weeks, it is said, a charter will be asked for a railroad in which the people of this section will be considerably interested. The new corporation will be known as The Potomac and Susquehanna Railroad. Just where it will extend from in the north is not definitely known, but Frederick, Md., will be the southern terminus for the present with Baltimore as the subsequent end of the line.

On the north it is thought the line will start near Williamsport, Pa., where it will have connection with the New York Central R. R. This much is known that the line will come down by way of Duncannon, keeping to the west bank of the "Susquehanna," crossing the mountain from Duncannon to Carlisle, thence to Newville, Shippensburg, Chambersburg, Green-castle, Waynesboro, Pen Mar, Thurmont and Frederick, with a line from near Thurmont to Gettysburg.

It is said the line will go partly steam and partly electric. Negotiations are now pending for the purchase of the trolley line being built from Carlisle to Newville, the Chambersburg, "Greencastle and Waynesboro Street" Railway, and the line being constructed from Frederick to Thurmont. This will leave a gap between Newville and Chambersburg, one from Pen Mar to Thurmont, and one from Thurmont to Gettysburg to be constructed, besides all north of Carlisle to destination.

HARVEY L. TATE

Harvey L. Tate died at his home in Mummaburg on Monday morning at five o'clock aged 29 years. Death was caused by tuberculosis of the throat.

Surviving him are his father, John W. Tate, with whom he lived; one brother, Clarence, of Norrisstown; and one sister, Mrs. Amos Wolf, of Mummaburg. He was a member of the Reformed church, of Arendtsville, and of the Odd Fellows.

Funeral Wednesday morning at 9:20 from his late home, conducted by Rev. T. C. Hesson. Interment in Arendtsville Cemetery.

LAFAEN TO PROBE

Washington, D. C., Jan. 25—Congressman D. F. Lafaen, of the York-Adams district, has been appointed a member of the committee to investigate alleged irregularities in the expenditures in the interior department.

The charge against Hon. Richard A. Ballinger, secretary of the interior, was made by Congressman Gilbert M. Hitchcock, of Nebraska. The committee has decided to hold daily sessions until the task is completed.

DIED IN OMAHA

Word has been received here of the death of John Jacobs, son of Mrs. M. O. Maul, of Omaha, Nebraska.

The young man, who was about 25 years of age, was a son of the late John Jacobs, a native of East Berlin, who died in Omaha some years ago. His mother is a daughter of the late William Soliday, of Hanover. His grandmother, Mrs. Kate Soliday, lives at Allentown.

BARNES GETS YEAR

Abraham Barnes was on Monday sentenced to 11 months and 29 days imprisonment in the Franklin county jail for pointing a gun at and threatening to shoot Special Game Protector McGarvey at Glen Farney during the latter part of November. It will be remembered that after conviction but before the verdict was announced, Barnes fled to Virginia and later was arrested at his home by a posse of Waynesboro police.

C o'ry,
We say it for an hour or for years;
We say it smiling, say it choked with tears;
We say it coldly, say it with a hiss,
And yet we have no other word than this—
"Goodby."

We have no dearer word for our heart's friend,
For him who journeys to the world's far end,
And scars our soul with going; thus we say,
As unto him who steps but o'er the way,
"Goodby."

Alike to those we love and those we hate,
We say no more in parting, at life's gate
To him who passes out beyond earth's sight
We cry, as to the wanderer for a night,
"Goodby."
—Grace Deato Litchfield.

BUSINESS OF COUNTY COURT

First Session on Monday a Short One. Criminal Case Disposed of Grand Jury Called, Foreman Appointed and Discharged.

Monday's session of January Court proved to be a short one, little business being before the Court and the one criminal case being disposed of in short order.

John S. Wolf of Butler township, and Samuel Sipling, of Conewago township, were appointed tipstaves for the first week; and S. C. McKenny, of Cumberland township, and William Starner, of Franklin township, for the second week.

The grand jury was called, William E. Kapp appointed foreman, and there being no work the jury was discharged.

The administrators of the estate of Ellen Louisa Fesser, deceased, were discharged on petition. In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Thomas Seery, charged with surety of the peace, the Court sentenced that he enter into recognizance in the sum of $200 to keep the peace "towards the good citizens of this Commonwealth and especially towards Lewis Topper."

The auditor's report of C. W. Stoner, Esq., auditor appointed by the Court to examine and audit the accounts of the county officers for the year 1909, was presented to the Court of Common Pleas and filed among the records of said Court.

IN MEMORY

Of Harpa Dilmore Wilkerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Wilkerson, of Butler township. Born December 31, 1905. Died January 8, 1910.

Farewell, our darling, thou hast gone and left us here. We are lonely without you here. We listen for thee, but we hear thee not. Farewell, our darling, though we have loved you perhaps too well, for soon you slept and died.

All is dark within our dwelling, Lonely are our hearts today, For the one we loved so dearly Has forever passed away.

But God knew best. He has taken him home.

By his parents.

Dearest Harpa, thou has left us. Here thy loss we deeply feel, But 'tis God who has bereft us. He can all our sorrows heal. Home is sad without you here.

Lonesome is every spot without our darling. We miss thee everywhere, Listening for thy voice till, weary, we hear it not. In thy little grave, thou liest, a babe care free, and are calling me to answer God's "well done."

By his brothers and sisters.

In the Bishop's Carriage

Channing Pollock's dramatization of "In the Bishop's Carriage" will be seen in this city tonight at Walter Theatre, and promises to be exceedingly interesting. This drama proves again the power of love, but it is in no sense an ordinary romance. The heroine is not what the average man would call a beautiful character, or one whom he would select to preside over his home and home. In fact, she was a thief, and a very clever and unrepentant one at that. Only at the end of the play does she exhibit to any great degree those qualities of mind and heart which are appreciated at the fireside. Latimer, a student in criminology, meets and determines to save her, and after a number of incidents that would discourage a less persevering man, he finally succeeds. Miss Stephanie Longfellow plays Nance Olden, the thief, and it would be difficult to find another actress as capable to fill this exacting part.

MEAT HERE AND IN LONDON
Beef Considerably Cheaper in England Than in New York.
London, Jan. 25.—London's beef, apart from what is home grown, comes from America, Canada, Argentina and New Zealand, and in very small quantities from Australia and Denmark. The retail prices depend upon the quality, where it comes from and the neighborhood in which it is sold, the prices in the West End, the fashionable section, being often higher than in the East End and the poorer districts.
The price of loin starts with Argentine frozen beef at 10 cents. Argentine chilled beef comes next at 15 cents. Then comes North American chilled at 15 to 19 cents, while North American town chilled fetched from 21 to 28 cents, and English home grown from 24 to 28 cents a pound.
West End prices are: For Australian ribs, 12 cents; loins, 14 cents; chuck, 10 cents, and round steak, 12 cents. East End prices are: Ribs, 8 cents; loins, 8 cents; chuck, 10 cents; round steak, 9 cents.
How do New York prices on beef compare with prices in London? Here is a table of comparative rates, based on a cable received from London and figures given timorously on packing house rows:
Retail prices of beef.
London. New York.
Loins15c. to 19c. 23c. to 25c.
Round16c. to 20c. 20c. to 21c.
Chuck12c. to 15c. 14c. to 18c.
The cuts here given are those known in the retail shops only. In the wholesale shops beef is sold here in quarters and in whole mostly; sometimes in halves. For whole beefs the price is from 8 to 10 cents per pound, according to quality and whether the beef is corn fed or range fed.

FLOODS INUNDATE FOURTH OF FRANCE
Thousands Out of Work and Property Damage Great.
Paris, Jan. 25.—A fourth of France, it is estimated, is under water. Snow and rain are adding to the floods, which are unprecedented in the history of the present generation.
The Seine continues to rise and the situation in this city is growing worse every hour. Water has drowned out the electric plant in the chamber of deputies and the deputies met by lamp-light. Premier Briand introduced a bill appropriating $400,000 for the relief of sufferers from the floods. He described what the government was already doing to abate the distress, and highly praised the heroic rescue work done by the soldiers and gendarmes. The chamber unanimously voted the appropriation.
Owing to the difficulty of getting food into the city markets prices have been raised, adding another element of distress to the poorer classes. It is estimated that 25,000 laborers have been thrown out of regular employment.
Casualties have been comparatively few. The explosion of boilers in inundated factories is an element of danger. An enormous amount of livestock is reported to have been drowned in the departments of Marne, Aube, Aisne and Meuse.
It is now believed that the Eiffel Tower, the foundations of which were threatened by the waters, is no longer in danger of collapsing. The wireless station at the top of the tower has been abandoned.
The rivers Rhone and Loire are reported to be falling, and the situation, accordingly, improved at Lyons, Limoges, Troyes, Amoy and Auxerre. The property damage cannot be estimated with any pretense of accuracy, but it will be very great.

LABOR LEADERS' TRIAL
Supreme Court to Hear Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison Next October.
Washington, Jan. 25.—The appeals of Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and Frank Morrison of the American Federation of Labor, to the supreme court of the United States, growing out of the suit of the Bucks Store and Refractory company against them, in the District of Columbia, were ordered consolidated by the court and set for hearing on the first Tuesday in the term beginning next October.
Tied to Track; Rescued Just in Time.
Vicksburg, Miss., Jan. 25.—George Burdette, a young man employed as car tacker on the Yazoo & Mississippi Valley railroad, was held up and robbed by two men in the shop yards. Then they bound him tightly hand and foot to the main line of the railway, over which a fast passenger train was soon due. Just as he saw the headlight of the train a negro came along and cut him loose without a second to spare.
Will Build 93 Miles of Track.
Pittsburg, Jan. 25.—The Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad has placed orders for the immediate construction of ninety-three miles of track east from the present terminus, New Haven, Pa., to Bellingham, W. Va., 131 miles west of Cumberland, Md. Bellingham is the western terminus for the Western Maryland railroad. An outlet to the seaboard for the Pittsburg & Erie is thus assured.

OLD VACCINATION "TAKES"
Young Woman Inoculated Seven Years Ago Just Got Effect.
Altoona, Pa., Jan. 25.—Miss Matilda DeLo is having an extraordinary experience with a vaccination that is puzzling the doctors. Seven years ago she was vaccinated several times by the late Dr. John Fay, but it refused to "take." She considered herself immune and gave it no further thought.
A few days ago her arm began to itch, and then a sore developed where the virus had been placed on the skin. Her physician says she now has a splendid vaccination.
"I Don't Eat Meat. Do You?"
Trenton, N. J., Jan. 25.—The anti-meat craze has struck Trenton. With in a few days thousands of buttons bearing the inscription, "I Don't Eat Meat. Do You?" will be distributed among the workmen who have agreed to abstain from the use of meat for thirty days, and possibly longer. Meat prices are higher than ever before, and local dealers are complaining of the falling off of trade. It is believed that the crusade against meat eating will result in the closing of a good many meat markets in this city.
Shoots Self While Coasting.
Williamsport, Pa., Jan. 25.—William Wheelan is in the city hospital suffering from a wound in the abdomen that may prove fatal. With two companions, he went walking and ended the trip with a ride down hill on a board. Wheelan had a revolver in his pocket, and the weapon was accidentally discharged, the bullet entering his body.

Helps to Beautify Her Town.
Mrs. F. E. Cook of Fresno, Cal., has evolved an original plan for helping in the improvement of her home town. She has a large, beautiful garden in which she employs several gardeners to raise plants and shrubs, which she distributes to all who apply for them to plant in front of their homes. During the past year she gave away several thousand plants and is doing much to make Fresno one of the most beautiful towns in California.

Supreme Court Recess.

PRESIDENT AFTER MONOPOLIES
Collecting Evidence Against Industrial Corporations.
WAITING ON OIL DECISION
Mr. Taft Declares He Is Pledged to Enforce the Sherman Act and He Intends to Keep the Pledge—Conference Over Beef Trust.
Washington, Jan. 25.—Callers at the White House who have sounded the president recently as to his attitude toward the prosecution of the so-called trusts, report that, regardless of whether the proposed voluntary federal corporation law is passed or not, the administration is preparing to put into effect a vigorous policy of dealing with the big combinations so as to bring them within the provisions of the anti-trust laws.
The president has let it be known that he is at this time merely awaiting the decision of the supreme court in the Standard Oil and tobacco trust cases, before directing the attorney general to take up an inquiry into the more notorious of the other trusts. The president is further reported as having said that both he and the party of which he is the titular head are pledged to a vigorous enforcement of the Sherman act, and that he intends to keep the pledge, but does not consider it necessary to climb upon the house-top every morning and shout about it.
In a quiet way the admission was made that the department of justice has been collecting information upon which it hopes to begin prosecutions against various corporations, following the decisions of the supreme court in the big trust cases. This relates entirely to industrial corporations, the only railroad case now on hand being that of the Union and Southern Pacific railroads. A demand has been made by the American Federation of Labor for an inquiry into the United States Steel corporation, but pending action by the department, President Gompers has been asked to be more specific in his charges against the corporation.
The future action to be taken by the department against the beef packers was the subject of a conference between the attorney general and Wade H. Ellis, his assistant, under whose supervision the investigation into the operations of the National Packing company, of Chicago, and the packing houses controlling it, have been under way for the past six months.
The basis for the discussion was the report made by United States District Attorney Sims at Chicago, who, on the ground, had immediate charge of the work of the agents of the department in obtaining information needed in the proposed prosecutions. Officials decline to give the contents of the district attorney's report or any recommendations he may have made. His residence at the headquarters of the National Packing company has stood him in good stead in reaching his conclusions, as he has a real knowledge of local conditions.

Governor Says Virginia Should Present Claim to Government.
Richmond, Va., Jan. 25.—Governor Swanson, in a special message to the legislature, advised that Virginia should claim from the federal government a portion of the $80,000,000 derived from the sale of public lands in the territory which Virginia ceded to the United States, from which were formed the states of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin and a portion of Minnesota.
The governor says congress appropriated to local uses within the states created about $80,000,000 derived from their sale. This, he says, was contrary to the terms of the cession of the territory.
Virginia's interest in the lands reserved amounted to one-seventh, and the governor recommends that the state proceed to recover this proportion.

Hollidaysburg, Pa., Jan. 25.—Mrs. Maud Orr, of Altoona, was defendant in the Blair county court upon the charge of drenching Constable John Roe with scalding hot water. The constable was taken to the hospital and the woman to jail.
Her defense was that the constable sang "Hee Haw" in her presence to insult her, because her name was Maud, the name of a mule made famous as a kicker in Sunday newspaper supplements.
The jury rejected this defense and found Maud guilty.

Mrs. John Menchey, 46 Breckenridge St., Gettysburg, Pa., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are an effective kidney medicine. I can recollect them just as highly today as I did two years ago when I gave a public statement in their favor. For a long time I was in poor health and finally kidney trouble made its appearance. The pains in my back were so severe that I could hardly move and often I became very dizzy. I had chills and headaches and knew that something must be done. On the advice of a friend, I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at the People's Drug Store and to my gratification, their use restored me to good health. Doan's Kidney Pills are a blessing to kidney sufferers."

Ten Doctors Said He Would Die

"In 1903 we wrote you regarding my husband, who was suffering from heart trouble. He was superannuated by the North Georgian Conference. Ten doctors at different times said he would die. You advised Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy and Restorative Nervine; we did as advised, and improvement was apparent from the very first. He recovered and one Conference in 1904 gave him a charge. He never felt better, although he has very heavy work and does a great deal of camp meeting work. I am so glad we took your advice and gave him the medicine, and feel that I ought to let you know of the wonderful good results from its use."

TWO WOMEN ROB BANKER ON STREET

W. M. Van Norden is Waylaid and Loses $28,000.

TWO SUSPECTS UNDER ARREST

New York, Jan. 25.—Warner M. Van Norden, president of the Van Norden Trust company, was held up and robbed of $28,000 on East Thirty-third street by two women. Two suspects are under arrest.

Though one of the women has made a partial admission of the crime that is charged against her, neither of the two has produced the twenty-six $1000 bills and twenty $100 bills which Van Norden said had disappeared from a wallet in the inner pocket of his dress coat after an encounter he had with the two women a few doors east of the corner of Fifth avenue and East Thirty-third street about midnight on Wednesday. Mr. Van Norden said that he had been a victim of a pure case of hold-up, and the fact that two women instead of one or more men did the trick did not in the least alter the character of the crime.

Glad They Didn't Take All.

He was glad that the women highwaymen had not taken quite all that he had when they waylaid him. The $28,000 which they did take were stretched at full length in the long compartment of his wallet; doubled into a smaller pocket were four $1000 bills and a single piece of paper currency with the $500 mark on it. These remnants of the $28,000 which Mr. Van Norden had with him when he left the Hotel Waldorf to go to his home at 7 West Fifty-seventh street had been overlooked by the feminine thugs.

"I had been to the theater with friends," said Mr. Van Norden. "We stopped at the Waldorf and had a little supper, after which I went into the writing room and wrote one or two letters. I started to go home some time about midnight. I went across Fifth avenue and was walking up East Thirty-third street, intending to take a Fourth avenue car. I noticed two women just ahead of me, an old one and a young one, both rather flashily dressed.

"One of them turned and looked at me, and then, when I was nearly up to them, the young one dropped her pocketbook. I immediately stooped to pick it up. Just as I did so the older and heavier of the two threw herself on me, and I felt her throw back the lapel of my heavy fur lined overcoat.

Wrestled With Woman.

"I rose to a standing position and wrestled myself away from her. The younger woman was standing nearby laughing. 'Don't mind her; she is just a little bit drunk,' she said. Just then the older woman made another dive at me and hit me in the chest. I wrestled with her for a fraction of a minute and then freed myself of her.

"I don't remember that I said anything, and there was nothing said by the two women except that one remark from the younger one. I walked on toward the car at Fourth avenue; since I felt my watch and the wallet in my pocket I thought that if an attempt had been made to rob me it had failed. When I got home I looked in my wallet and found that $28,000 was gone from the middle pocket."

Mr. Van Norden added that he was not in the habit of carrying so much money around with him in his evening clothes. He carried it in an inside pocket of the coat of his evening clothes, and he could not understand how it had been possible for the woman who lunged at him to find the wallet, abstract so many bills and return it to his pocket without detection. After having discovered his loss Mr. Van Norden went early on the following morning to headquarters and reported the incident to the detective bureau, giving a pretty good description of the two women. Detectives brought two women into headquarters on Sunday. One of them is known variously as May, Annie and Marie Williams. She gave her age as twenty-four. The other, an older and heavier woman, said she was Bessie Roberts, and that she was forty years old, but she also is known in select police society as Kitty Dowdell, of Chicago, one of the experts at purse grabbing.

Mr. Van Norden went to headquarters and promptly identified the two women who were being held as the two who had robbed him. They were held in $30,000 bail.

Wreck's Death Toll 60.

Montreal, Jan. 25.—The count of the tickets of Conductor Reynolds, of the ill-fated Canadian Pacific railroad passenger train, shows there were seventy-nine passengers. This does not include the crew. Fifty-eight bodies have been recovered and two are reported missing. In the second class coach all the eleven occupants perished.

HEIKE PLEADS IMMUNITY

Sugar Trust's Secretary Seeks to Avoid Prosecution.

New York, Jan. 25.—Charles R. Heike, secretary of the American Sugar Refining company, sought to avoid prosecution for alleged sugar underweighing frauds on the claim of having taken an "immunity bath."

Heike was arraigned before Judge Hough, in the United States circuit court, with Ernest N. Gerbracht, former superintendent of the American Sugar Refining company, and the other sugar company officials and checkers indicted for conspiracy in connection with the frauds on the Williamsburg docks. Heike's counsel presented a plea in abatement on the ground that his client had appeared on several occasions before the grand jury, which was investigating the sugar frauds, and, therefore, was entitled to immunity.

Pleas of not guilty were entered by all the other defendants.

RECOVERS BODY FROM SNOW

Honey Brook, Pa., Jan. 25.—Buried in the snow of the Christmas blizzard, his body lying in the white mantle for four weeks, to be uncovered by the rains of last week, Charles Wolf, of Lancaster, was found near here.

Wolf was caught in the storm of Christmas night, and in working his way over the fields to the home of his employer, John Altman, he became so fatigued that he dropped over in a snow drift and was covered up, dying as he slept.

CONFESSES MURDER OF GIRL IN CEMETERY

Navy Department Turns Slayer Over to Authorities.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The navy department ordered the commandant of the naval prison at Portsmouth, N. H., to release from custody James Hall in order that he might be arrested by the civil authorities and taken to Rochester, N. Y. Several days ago Hall confessed to the murder of Anna Schumacher in Holy Sepulchre cemetery in Rochester last August.

"I was walking through Rochester and stopped at 215 Monroe street one day. I slept in the Lehigh yards the night before. I went around town some while there. I struck out through the country and woke up in a grave.

ANNA SCHUMACHER.

yard. Men were working there. A girl was there, a young girl over five feet, hair not black. She heard me coming and looked around. I got talking to her, and when she got ready to leave I told her I would like to walk with her; I lost my head or something—near a river—she struggled. I listened to her heart, and at first did not think she was dead. Got scared finally before morning and buried her in the sand, near a place that was dug out.

"I did not take particular notice how she was dressed. I walked around with her before dark and then strangled her. My mind, which was made up at first to assault her, has been bothering me since working for Peterson. I could get no peace of mind or anything. When I worked for Frank Little I made up my mind I would give myself up and started to Rochester to do so. I did not read the newspapers. I stayed around Rochester for three days, worrying about it. I enlisted in Columbus, O.

"JAMES HALL."

Hall is twenty-four years of age. He was tried at Norfolk on Dec. 9 last for fraudulent enlistment, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to one year's imprisonment at the naval prison at Portsmouth.

Bengal Bomb Discoverer Killed in Court

Calcutta, British India, Jan. 25.—Shamrui Silema, a police officer, who was prominent in unearthing the Bengal bomb conspiracy, was shot dead in the high court. The murderer, a young Bengalee, fled to the street, where he was pursued by mounted police. When overtaken the assassin threw a bomb at the police, and when this failed to explode drew a pistol, which, however, he did not have a chance to use, being quickly overpowered.

HUSTON JURY COMPLETED

Pennsylvania Capitol Architect on Trial.

THE ACCUSED NOT PRESENT

Defendant, Charged With Defrauding the State Out of $25,000, Remained in Hotel While Jury Was Being Selected.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 25.—Joseph M. Huston, architect of Pennsylvania's capitol and commissioned to design its furniture and equipment, was called for trial in the Dauphin county court on the charge of conspiring with John H. Sanderson, furniture contractor, Philadelphia; William P. Snyder, former auditor general; William L. Mathews, former state treasurer, and James M. Shumaker, former superintendent of public grounds and buildings, to defraud the state out of $25,571.60. The jury was completed yesterday, and this morning James Scarlett, special counsel for the state, opened the case. The trial will take several weeks.

Huston was not in court when his case was called. With his brother, Samuel C. Huston, and employee, John Lochman, he remained in a room at a hotel, while his lawyers appeared at the bar to answer for him.

The architect is under many thousands of dollars of bail in this and other cases and is not required to be in court, provided his attorneys are present.

Huston elected to avoid being the object of scores of eyes, as he was in former cases, and it is intimated may remain away from many of the sessions. That his interests will be fought for with vigor was indicated by the zeal with which his lawyers probed into the thoughts of talesman after talesman summoned for jury duty.

Heavy Toll of Death.

Of the men indicted with Huston, District Attorney Weiss stated, the hand of death had removed Sanderson and Mathews, and that the others had been granted severances from the case, just as Huston had been severed from the first capitol case within three days of two years ago.

The proceedings of the day were perfunctory and business like. Seven talesmen, men who had been serving for two weeks in murder and other trials, were in court, and twelve men suitable to both sides were selected from twenty-three called.

The jury is as follows:

Even Evans, miner, Wisconsin town ship.

Joseph E. Bowman, miller, Millersburg.

Ambrose Lindsay, laborer, Harrisburg.

William M. Shutt, inspector, Penbrook.

Augustus Zerfass, laborer, Hummelstown.

David R. McNeal, painter, Susquehanna township.

Thomas I. Snyder, foundryman, Uniontown.

George E. Meek, painter, Harrisburg.

William J. Baker, farmer, Jackson township.

Cyrus Novinger, carpenter, Middle Paxton township.

TRY TO INFLUENCE JUDGE

Hundreds of Letter Writers Show Interest in Christy Divorce Case.

Zanesville, O., Jan. 25.—Judge H. C. Smith, before whom the legal battle for possession of their child was waged by Howard Chandler Christy and his wife, has been literally deluged with letters from persons who seek to influence the decision in the case.

The letters are from every state in the Union with the exception of three, although the greater portion are from New York. There is a great diversity of opinion among the writers, and of fully one-fourth Christian Science enters into the discussion of the case.

Auto Goes Over Bank; Three Killed.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 25.—Three persons were killed and three seriously injured, when an automobile, owned and driven by Contractor J. S. Maloney, of Kansas City, Kan., skidded and plunged over a forty-foot embankment at Cliff drive and Agnes avenue.

Expel Drunken Middles.

Washington, Jan. 25.—President Taft has approved the dismissal of three members of the first class at the naval academy for intoxication. The dismissed midshipmen are James Murray Whitehead, New Jersey; Scott Lynn, Utah, and Cleveland Clevenger, Missouri.

Well Known Socialist Dead.

New York, Jan. 25.—Benjamin Hanford, the Socialist, died at his home, 857 East Thirty-fourth street, Flatbush, after five years of declining health. His death was due directly to a complication of diseases. He leaves a widow.

To Work on Streets For Lodging.

Jonestown, a prosperous town of Wisconsin, has a novel plan for keeping its streets clean and improving them. The board of aldermen of the town unanimously passed an order compelling all persons who receive food and lodging in the city lockup and who are not at the time under arrest to work on the streets from 7 a. m. to 10 a. m. each following morning.

Monarch Light Touch

A typewriter is not an automatic machine with a fixed output; the amount of work produced must always be dependent upon the operator. The operator begins work in the morning with a certain supply of physical energy. With the ordinary heavy working typewriter she exhausts that energy before the day's end—then comes "three o'clock fatigue" and slow, dragging work.

Monarch Light Touch lightens the operator's load—draws less on her energy per folio. The result is that the operator is able to maintain full speed right up to closing time, finishing fresh and strong. Her efficiency is increased, the output of her machine is enlarged, and consequently the per folio cost of typewriting to her employer is reduced.

Let us demonstrate this other Monarch features to you.

Weak Stomach

Test Samples of Mi-o-na Free

If you have indigestion, dyspepsia, sour stomach, dizziness or biliousness, no matter how long standing, Mi-o-na stomach tablets will cure, or your money back.

Thousands are getting rid of indigestion by using Mi-o-na. Here is what one man writes: "I want to speak a good word for Mi-o-na and what it has done for me. I suffered something terrible with dyspepsia and indigestion. It was almost impossible for me to eat anything. Day after day I would go without eating anything. One day I read your ad in the Bangor Daily News. I got a box, and before it was gone I could sit down to the table and eat anything, thanks to Mi-o-na."—Herbert L. Patterson, Brower (Bangor), Me., 1909.

Mi-o-na stomach tablets are made from the best prescription ever written—they cure to stay cured. They relieve distressed stomach in a few minutes. They are sold by druggists in every town in America, and by The People's drug store. A large box costs but 50 cents. Test samples free from Booth's Mi-o-na, Buffalo, N. Y.

The fact that a fellow farmer's farm is no proof that he is boastful or stuck on himself, but simply that he considers what he is doing sufficiently worth while so that he is not ashamed to have the public know to whom the place belongs. If a fellow doesn't believe in naming his farm, there is doubtless a practical reason for it that is not far to seek.

The 1909 corn crop is far and away the most valuable ever raised, its worth being placed at $1,720,000,000. While in quantity it is less than the crop of 1906, there was still a total of 2,767,000,000 bushels, which is 3.5 per cent greater than the average for the past five years. The value of the 1909 crop exceeds by 36 per cent the value of the crops for the past five years.

Careful investigations which have been carried on in California in connection with the pear thrips show that from 70 to 73 per cent of the thrips may be destroyed by means of deep plowing in the fall and from 90 to 97 per cent of the remainder by proper spraying under high pressure in a downward direction with a combination spray of dilute tobacco extract and distillate oil emulsion.

Free Sample For Baby's Ills

Something can and must be done for the puny, crying baby, for the child that refuses to eat and is restless in its sleep. And since the basis of all health is the proper working of the digestive organs, look first to the condition of the stomach and bowels.

A child should have two full and free movements of the bowels a day. This emptying of the bowels is very important, as with it a clear head, a lightness of step, good appetite and sound sleep. But it is equally important to know what to give the child in the emergency of constipation and indigestion. Cathartics are too strong and salts and other purgatives are not only too strong, but the child refuses them because of their bad taste. Have you ever tried Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin? It is a liquid, not a powder, and has been used for a quarter of a century. It is mild, pleasant-tasting and promptly effective. It is good for you as well as the child, but there is nothing better to be found for children. They like its taste and you will not have to force them to take it.

First of all, if you have not yet used it, Dr. Caldwell would like to send you a sample bottle free of charge. In this way you can try it before buying. Later, when convinced of its merits, you can get it of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, just as thousands of other families are doing. The family of Mr. D. W. Spangler of Strattonville, Pa., as well as that of Mr. A. F. Johnson of Walnut Grove, Tenn., started with it in that way and now write that it is their family remedy next to food itself. If you are unfortunate enough to have a sickly child, one given to constipation and indigestion, you should send for a free sample of this remedy. Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 521 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

A CABBAGE SNAKE QUERY.

A lady reader of these notes living near Massillon, O., writes making inquiry if there is any ground for the impression existing in some localities that the cabbage snake or worm is poisonous, or, rather, if cabbages inhabited by them are such, she having found one twelve inches long coiled up in a bunch about as large as a hickorynut. There was quite a stir over this matter three or four years ago, and enough was published in the papers so that the cabbage growers of the country lost many thousands of dollars. With a view to getting at the truth about the matter the agricultural department at Washington made a thorough investigation and the time and reported that there was no connection whatever between the presence of these long white worms in cabbages and the illness or death of persons eating them. The probabilities are that if deaths ever did occur from eating cabbages they were due rather to the fact that the cabbages had been sprinkled with paris green after they had begun to head or were stale when eaten, ptomaine poisoning resulting from the process of decay which had already set in. It is true that the mere idea of one of these snakes being in a cabbage and being boiled up with it is calculated to upset one's stomach, but that it produces a poison is entirely beyond the range of possibility. If our inquirer is of an investigating turn of mind she may demonstrate the truth of the above claims by boiling the snake up in some milk and feeding it to a kitten. Should there be any truth whatever in the poison theory the kitten will show the effects of it. If the kitten is not affected it is safe to conclude that a child or grown person would not be.

Keeping Milk Utensils Clean

Discard the dishcloth and the dish-towel when the milk utensils are being washed. Wash them in warm water first, with plenty of some washing compound, and use a brush to do the work, but never a rag. Get into every part of them, after which rinse off with clean warm water, and then either put them in boiling water or pour boiling water over them. Stand the parts up so that they will drain and use no cloth to wipe them. The hot surface will dry them quickly, and they will be clean. Leave the parts in a sunshiny place if possible.

Rustling Ability of Milk Goats.

The milk goat, like all goats, can make a living on brushy and hilly land where most other animals would starve. They are very beneficial to land in cleaning it of weeds, sprouts and brush. They cannot endure low, wet land, but thrive perfectly on rough, hilly land. Those giving milk should be fed on good grass, hay, fodder and wheat bran, but no grain of any kind.

THE DAIRYMAN

Have some lard or vaseline handy to anoint sore teats. Sore teats and a tender udder often make the cow kick when otherwise she would not do so.

Care Should Be Taken While Milking.
No smoking or chewing of tobacco should be permitted while the milking is being done. The odor of the weed is highly absorbed by the sensitive milk.

Stop the Cow From Kicking.
A kicking cow may often be cured by buckling a strap one inch wide around each hind leg a little above the hock, tight enough to compress the hamstring.

Use Only Pure Water.
Only pure water should be used in washing vessels. First rinse with warm water, then scald inside and out with boiling water. After that put out in the sun to dry.

For the Beginner.
In beginning select a few cows, grades if you like, keep a strict account upon the performance of your cows and cull all who do not more than pay their way.

Pet and Fondle the Calves.
The calves should be petted and fondled from babyhood when they expect to make milk cows of them. It is good even to rub their udders and develop in them the motherly cow nature.

Regularity Essential.
Regularity is essential to satisfactory performances of any good dairy cow. She must have her life regulated upon an almost clock-like system—the same hour each day for milking, feeding, grooming, pasturing, etc.
